A Preview of the Play

The curtains have been drawn on another great performance, but backstage is the cast who will forget none of this lively drama. Was every act a happy one? No—as in every play—there have been many trying moments for the cast as well as for the master puppeteers. Those who have shared these experiences will never forget the knowledge and experience gained through the past scenes. This performance will always live as a part of their lives.

We, the staff of PUFFS AND PATCHES, are proud to open again the curtains on this drama so that you may have a glimpse of the past. Our stage will be set through words and pictures, and it is our hope that as you turn the pages you will remember now or years later the joys, the sorrows and the pleasures of this year at C. H. S.

Best of luck
to a nice girl.

With Great Honor and Applause

Because of her interest in all the activities of Covington High School, her cheerful smile, and her fine personality, we have all come to love and appreciate Mrs. Rose Patterson Rose. Through her untiring efforts the annual and other journalism projects have become one of the finest features in our high school life. Because she has helped us to appreciate good work, both in scholastic and extra-curricular activities; and has made our high school days richer, more pleasant and more profitable, we dedicate the 1952 PUFFS AND PATCHES to Mrs. Rose P. Rose.

Best of luck and happiness to a sweet
and cute girl.

Covington High we'll miss you
As time goes by, we'll miss you.
After Monday night shows,
To the Honey Dew we'd go.
We've had our fun, we've had our dances,
Had our heartbreaks and romances.

Covington High we'll miss you,
As time goes by, we'll miss you,
Chats in the hall, teachers and all,
The games we've won and lost together,
These memories will linger forever.

Covington High we'll miss you,
As time goes by, we'll miss you,
Commencement and all—
The tears we let fall.
Our role of "stars" we do bequeath
To the juniors, who rank beneath us.

Covington High we'll miss you
As time goes by, we'll miss you.
So dear to our hearts, hard to depart,
And Covington High we will miss you.

WHAT CUSTOM DECREES

The guest appearances of Mr. I. M. Tradition at C. H. S. have been going on since the start of Covington High. From the first day of school until the last, Mr. Tradition plays a lead role, not a bit part. By the time the first week of school has gone by the new students have learned at least two of the roles our star plays, namely, seniors come into assembly last while the student body stands and they leave first, and also the newcomers learn to know which steps are for "up" traffic and which for "down," although many forget by the time they are seniors.

When the first football game is played, the Cougars have a spectator who doesn't pay at the gate. He is Mr. Tradition. However, he is a very common sight because he can be seen at the pep rally every Thursday; wearing his bright red tie at the games; reading the messages of backing and spirit which are posted in conspicuous places over the buildings telling the team the school is behind them; standing at attention while the band plays the "Star Spangled Banner" before the kick-off; or singing at the top of his voice "Onward Cougars" while the band plays and the crowd rises after one of the Cougars has plunged over for a touchdown. Mr. Tradition puts on an old red shirt and a pair of blue jeans and comes to the Sadie Hawkins dance, a yearly jamboree given by the cheerleaders. Our old trouper gets choked up when the "Little Brown Jug," the symbol of a football victory over our bitter rivals from "Bagdad," "City of Doom," sometimes known as Clifton Forge, is placed in the hands of the two co-captains.

"Going up"

"Bound for New York"

This actor isn't exclusively sportsminded. He enjoys the fun that is a habit at C. H. S. Never has the paddle been swung any harder at a Monogram initiation nor has the lipstick been put on any thicker at a sophomore initiation than the time Mr. I. M. Tradition set the standards many years ago. During the month of November our theatrical idol pays another visit to C. H. S. when he votes in the elections held by the government classes. He also shows up at the Monogram formal when the Monogram Queen is crowned. During December this year Mr. Tradition paid his yearly visit at the Christmas formal and was on the front row when the music department presented its program of Christmas music at assembly.

This year our actor friend added another tradition because Covington High School took a big step forward in the field of state sporting events. The Cougars left the ranks of Group II and invaded the ranks of the big boys in Group I.

When exams came up this year our performer changed his procedure a little. Instead of having one big exam there were two or three hourly tests. Nevertheless Mr. Tradition was able to cause the excitement and cramming that has always been connected with exams.

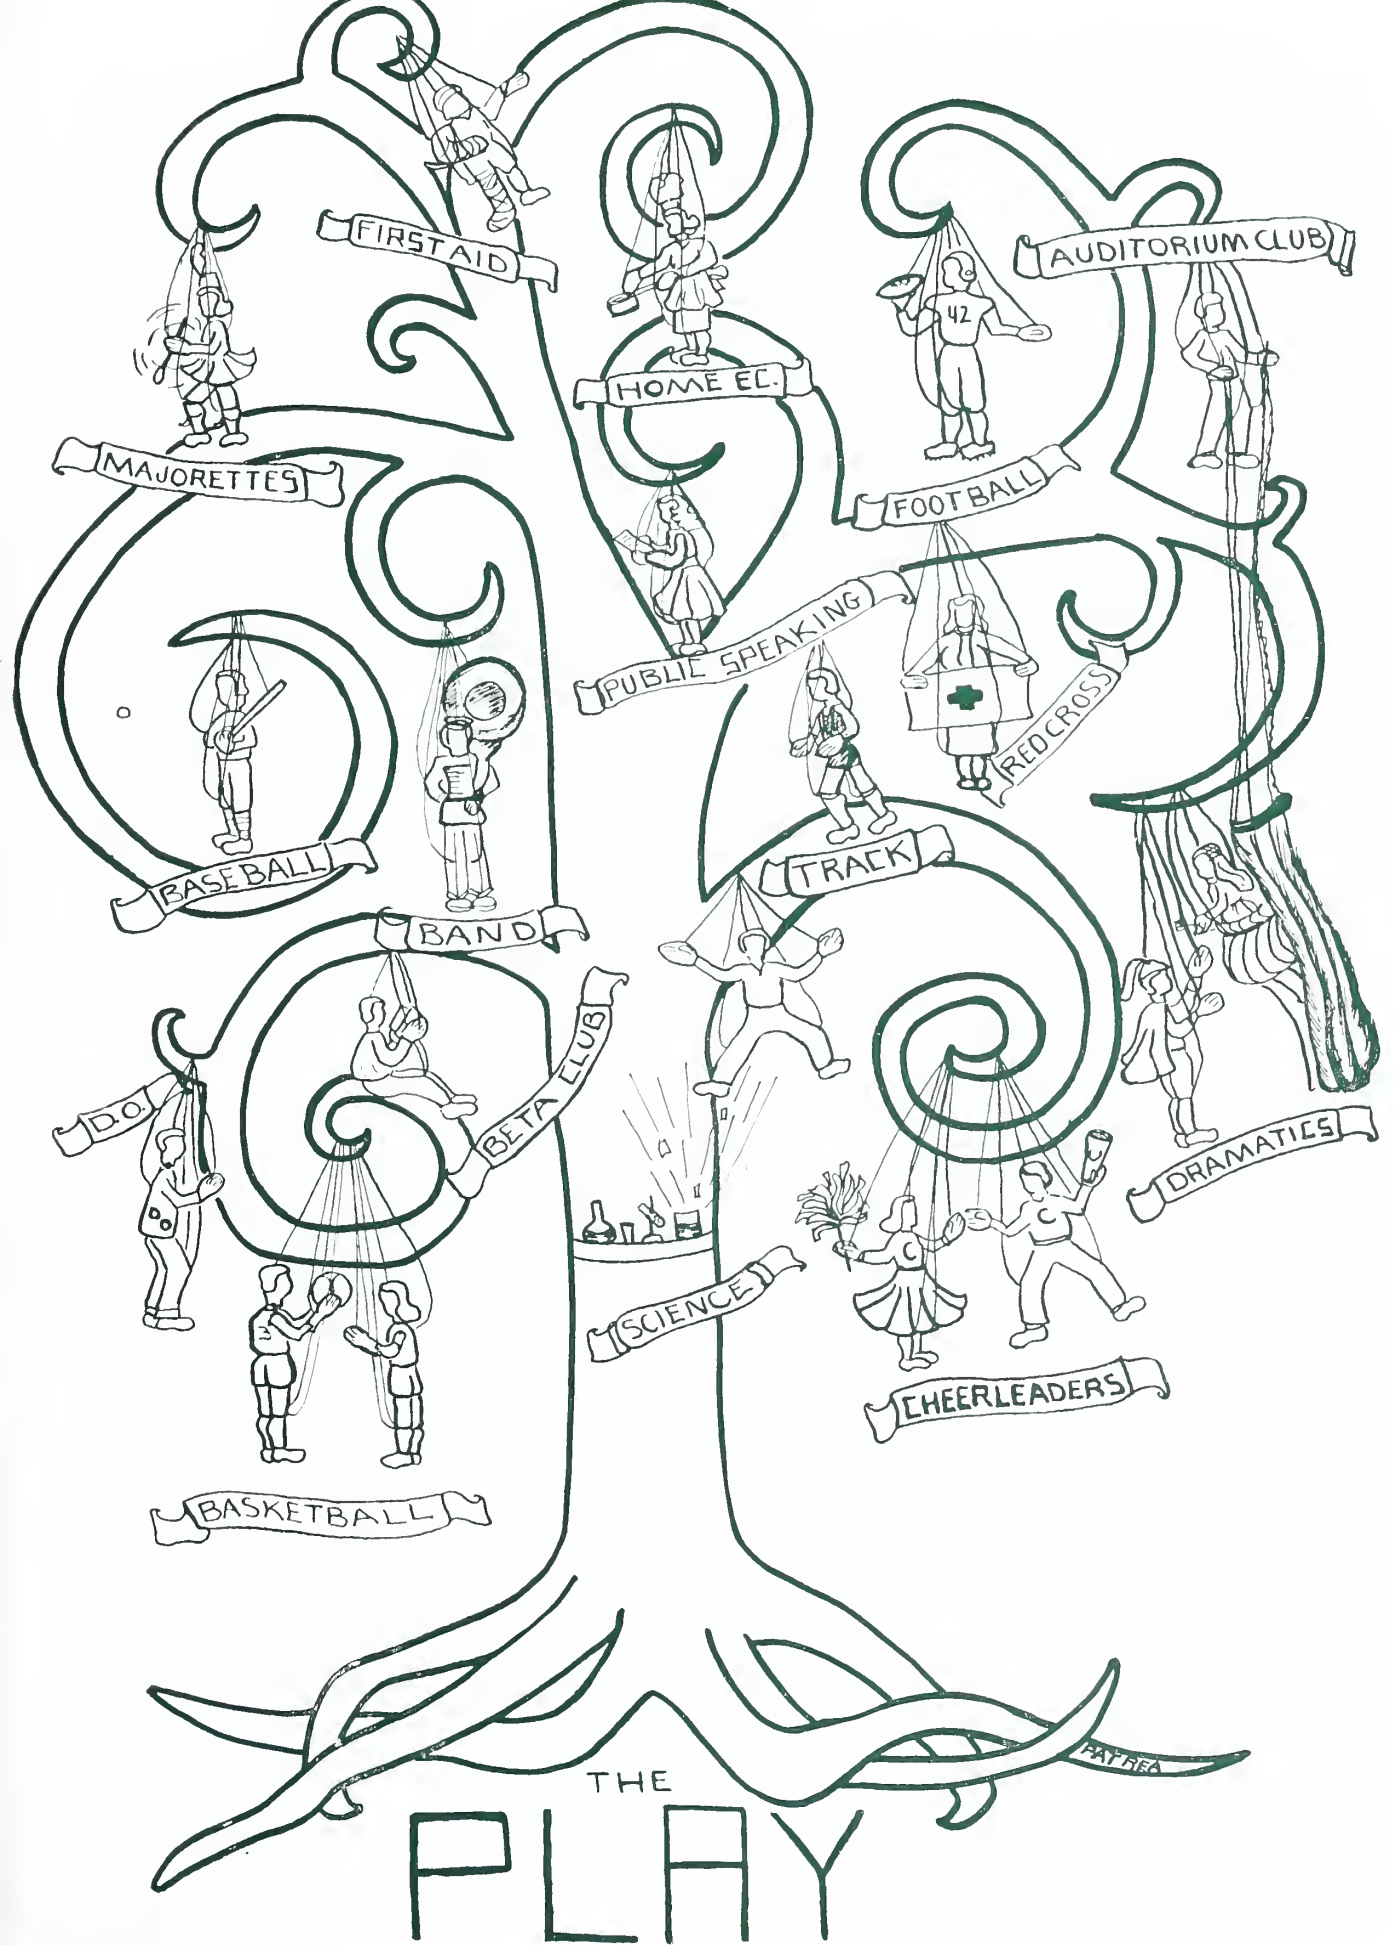

Three years ago our trusted trouper started a new sporting event. The Student Council played the faculty in basketball and helped build better relations between students and teachers. The government classes each year go either to New York or to Washington. Mr. Tradition arranges all the details and goes along. At the Junior-Senior Prom the pride of old Broadway is the guiding hand as the senior class president leads the figure.

The guest appearance of Mr. Tradition always gives pleasure to the students but you can bet all the fun of high school that if he didn't enjoy himself Mr. I. M. Tradition would never show his face in the drama at C. H. S.

The Student Council, the governing body of our cast, acts as a guide to all the players. The most important role given to the Council is that of interpreting and applying the rules and regulations of the set. This year the Council's main project was stressing honor to the cast.

The First Aid Club is one of the most essential groups on the set. The club is always on hand to heal the cuts and bruises of the cast. The club not only helps out on the set but can be called upon for any emergency.

BETA CLUB AND DRAMATIC CLUB

Upper Picture—Seated: Tingler, Rice, J. Williams, Hatcher, Montgomery, Carson, Lee, Newman, Lemon, Sites, D. Rudisill, Hite, Deaton, Wyatt, S. Rurisill, M. Persinger, B. Williams, McCormick, East, E. Persinger, Rea, Dressler.

The Beta Club contains our "brains." Not only is this part of our cast absorbed in books, but all of these players are most active in sports and extra-curricular activities. Leadership, achievement and character plus those good grades qualify juniors for Beta Club membership. Long may they thrive among us!

This club contains our outstanding actors and actresses. I'll never forget the day this wonderful cast put on their three one-act plays for the public. "Wonderful!" "Superb!" "Bravo!" These familiar sounds still ring in my ears. What fun it is to act!

TRI-HI-Y AND AUDITORIUM CLUBS

Clean speech, clean living, clean sportsmanship and clean thoughts—these are the things for which the Girls' Tri-Hi-Y strives. Not only do they hold devotions before school, but they are always ready to help a needy family, fill stockings for veterans or sell Easter lilies to help crippled children.

What would any play be without a stage crew? We certainly couldn't get along without our Auditorium Club. They do anything from supplying light bulbs to changing the scenery on our set. These boys deserve the thanks of the cast for doing so much strenuous work.

Upper Picture—First Row: Roach, Hammond, P. Andrews, Tingler, Gibson, Hepler, Coiner, Brown, Adcox.

HOME ECONOMICS AND PUBLIC SPEAKING CLUBS

When it comes to showing the cast how to cook, sew or clean, the Home Economics Club can't be beat. The club works diligently throughout the year to show the cast how to be stars in the home and in the kitchen now, and also how to be stars in homemaking throughout life—"Future Homemakers" they are indeed.

The Public Speaking Club consists of those players who take a delight in dramatic readings, orations and monologues. The Club learns the importance of speaking correctly and in most cases the players in this club never suffer from knocking knees and a tied tongue when they speak in public.

Upper Picture—Seated: Knowles, Reynolds, Miss Hepler, Pierce, Swartz, Thomas, Myers, Fitzgerald, Frye, Ailstock, Miss Perry.

Standing: Tyree, Armentrout, Farmer, Nace, Mays, Loan, Hayslett, Deffinbaugh, Andrews.

DIVERSIFIED OCCUPATIONS CLUB

Second Row: G. Persinger, Conner, Coffey, Payne, Crowder, N. Smith, Milton.

Third Row: McFadden, Weikle, Humphries, Ervin, East, Burchette, Sutphin, Mr. Hoover, Hatcher.

Second Row: Montgomery, R. Campbell, Snead, Humphries, Whitmer, Shawver, C. Campbell, C. Persinger.

Third Row: Poague, Haynes, H. Lacks, Landrum, Ramsey, Dame, Whitesell, D. Smith, Crizer, Brizendine.

Diversified Occupations Club consists of those who work on the set, and also have part time jobs. We are proud to have members of our cast represented in many local businesses, in which their jobs range from garage mechanic to store clerk. These hardworking souls are easily recognized by the green D. O. worn on their white sweaters. Industrious students have the advantage of school and can earn some money and learn a trade at the same time. Some students say that they wouldn't like to work and go to school too, but "I have to go to work!" often serves as a good alibi.

ODD FELLOWS AND RED CROSS CLUB

Second Row: Jones, Long, Stinespring, Phillips, Warlitzer, Felty, Dressler, Humphries, Mrs. Lunger.*

*Lower Picture—Seated: Weese, Collins, Jackson, Stinnette, Curfman, Peterson, Smith.
Standing: Barnett, Miss Martz, Hayslett.*

Oh! That cast of fellows in room 205! one would think they were a snooty group but actually they are the most sociable group on the set. They keep our morale up by putting daily quotations on the bulletin board. The one enjoyed most was "I'll but lie down and bleed awhile—then I'll rise and fight again." This quotation was adopted as the motto for the Cougars, who lost one game and rose up to score many victories.

"Help those Who Need Help." This is the motto of the Red Cross Club. One of their main projects this year was helping the Veterans in the Salem Hospital. If only you could have seen the faces of the disabled soldiers when they received the miscellaneous gifts sent by the club!

SCIENCE AND BUSINESS CLUBS

Step into our laboratory! Here you will see Mr. Meredith and his "little monsters" working on some wonder of science. The Science Club helps promote an interest in science and gives its members a chance to use the equipment of the school to do their experiments. For anyone interested in any field of science, the Science Club is for you.

The Business Club, a new group on the set this year, received a hearty welcome from the staff. There is nothing like preparation for the business world and this club offers excellent training in the field.

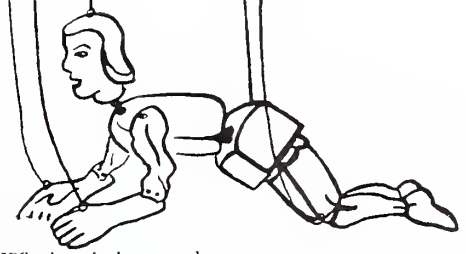

Upper Picture—Seated: Baber, Bowling, Iseley.

Standing: Camper, Andrews, Hevener, Lemon, Knick, Akers, Hayslett, Mr. Meredith, Lockhart.

Lower Picture: Dressler, Thompson, Deaton, Kandris, Wright, Guth, Clarke, Back, Pullen, Rhodes, Miss Jones, Tobin, Fleming, King, Crookshanks.

THE BEST BAND IN THE LAND

Every play needs music and that's what the C. H. S. band furnishes. Whether it be parades, football games, pep rallies or assemblies, the band, loyal and willing, is always prepared to help. This year the band was present at all the football games, whether near or far. Another great honor which was bestowed upon the band was a three-day trip to the Apple Blossom Festival. OH! what fun! Leading the band were the peppy and high stepping majorettes and the drum major. One of the most spectacular feats that the majorettes performed was the twirling and dancing to such tunes as "Charleston," "Little Brown Jug" and the never-to-be-forgotten "Dixie."

A CAPPELLA CHOIR AND BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Third Row: Keith, Bussard, Matthews, Beamer, Groves, J. Felty, Mrs. Fleshman.

During many assemblies the audience of C. H. S. listens to the splendid performance of this group of singers. The choir presents arrangements of spirituals and hymns which linger on our memory long after the meeting is over.

Lending harmony to the voices of the girls, the Boys' Glee Club comes in with a deep tone of quality. Male voices on the set add variety to the performance of the music department of C. H. S.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

Second Row: Thompson, Andrews, Shumaker, Carson, Childs, Sutphin, Burwell, Watts, Beazley.

Third Row: Mrs. Fleshman, N. King, Wallace, Hardy, Sampson, Downey, Collins, Hatcher, Williams, Kelly, J. Paxton, Dressler, Bowman, Raikes, Garrett, Powell, Sizemore, Hoover, Jamison, R. King, McCormick, Rhodes, Mitchell.

Fourth Row: Franklin, Cook, Kessinger, Beverage, Terry, Miley, Austin, Tucker, Weaver, Devers, Bowen, W. Paxton, Sluss, Lewis.

Depth and beauty are contributed to the play when the voices of the girls blend together, forming the background music to the production of "C. H. S. in 52." The school year is highlighted when the Girls' Glee Club, one of the most active groups on the set, give their Spring Concert, and various other performances during the year.

FORMAL OCCASIONS

1. Miss Jones and the Curfmans enjoying the prom. 2. Billy Rose's chorus girls? No, just the flower girls at the prom! 3. How about some punch and cookies? 4. Leading the grand march at the prom. 5. The king and queen pose with their attendants. 6. "The Royal Covingtonians" played the sweetest music this side of heaven at the Christmas formal. 7. Monogram queen candidates are led by their sponsors. 8. She looks like the queen of hearts, but Kitty Andrews is also Monogram queen. 9. Sitting one out at the Christmas formal. 10. Sorry, all the cookies are gone.

Lower Picture—First Row : Long, Plott, Haynes.

Second Row : Hawkins, Humphries, Fenderson, Stinespring, Gumm, Warlitter, Hamm, Henderson.

Third Row : Felty, Andrews, Dressler, Lunger.

The Monogram Clubs of C. H. S. invite winners of C's to join their ranks in one of the oldest clubs in the history of the school. The girls get most of their letters from basketball and cheerleading. The boys' members are from football, basketball, baseball and track players who have won their C's in these fields. Probably the biggest dance and the biggest picnic of the year are the ones sponsored by the Monogram Clubs.

THE CHEERLEADERS

Lower Picture: Keith, Crowder, Wilmer, Turner, Andrews, Gumm, Roach, Coleman, Bouchard, Scott.

With the growth of our school came the growth of our cheerleaders for there were 10 this year instead of 8. Those spirited Pep Rallies on the court house steps, the leading of cheers in assembly before each game, the appearance of the cheerleaders on the football field in their little red jeep—these are the things which helped lead our team to victory and kept us in a gay mood throughout the year. When thinking of this jovial group which has made the set more cheerful, one would readily say, Rah! Rah! Cheerleaders.

The Cougars debut into Group I as a basketball team was a disappointment. Playing in eight conference games in the Western District the Cougars were unable to win a single game and ended on rock bottom in the standings. The jump from Group II to Group I was just too great for the Cougars although at times they showed signs of being a better than fair ball club.

Outside the conference, however, their record was better, with six wins and three losses. Two of these victories were over Clifton Forge, the old time rivals "from down the river," and so the season was not without joy.

Coach "Chesty" Squire's first team was composed of Walter Knick at center, Captain Roscoe Humphries and Russell Hayslett as forwards; Ronnie Baker and "Hotdog" Dressler as guards.

Next year's team should make a better showing since there will be only two members departing from the squad and the remaining boys will have gained much valuable experience.

The 1951-52 production of the Covington High School Cougarrette basketball team has made a smash hit. A very successful season with 11 wins and 2 loses has made the whole cast proud of them. Our first string is graduating namely; Co-Captains: Null and Long; Roach, Crowder, Mongole, and Hilton. Their director, Mrs. White, is not looking for another winning season because she lacks experienced stand-ins.

The Covington High School Cougars had a very successful gridiron season during 1951 although their winning streak was broken at 19 games. The Cougars ran their winning streak to 19 with victories over Waynesboro, 27 to 6; Harrisonburg, 13 to 0; and G. M. S. Generals, 12 to 6. The 13th of October was an unlucky day for the Cougars, even though it wasn't on Friday. The Cougars lost to the Glen Allen Panthers of Richmond 12 to 0. It was the Panthers way of getting revenge for the loss they suffered in 1950. This was the first time since "Boodie" Albert became coach that the Cougars failed to score during a ball game.

The Cougars came back to start a new streak with a hard fought victory over William Byrd of Vinton by a score of 20 to 19. The following week the Cougars played perhaps their best game when they won over Handley High with the score of 27 to 6. The team's hope of another long victory string was cut short by a team called The Jefferson High Magicians, who finished with a score of 14 to 6.

The final victory was the sweetest because the win over Clifton Forge by a score of 13 to 6 gave Covington High School the "Little Brown Jug" for another year and a final record for 1951 of 6 victories and 2 defeats.

Before any play can be produced it must have backers. The business staff and the advertisers are the backers for PUFFS AND PATCHES. Any production takes money, and the business staff, by means of subscriptions and advertisements, is able to finance our production. When praise is due it is often bestowed on the editorial staff, but our partners should share the honors, for without them the production could not be carried through.

Thanks should also be given to the business men who from year to year give the annual their loyal support through advertisements. The editorial staff wishes to thank the business staff, the advertisers, and all others who helped to make the 1952 edition of PUFFS AND PATCHES possible.

The highlight of every play at C. H. S. is the football game with Clifton Forge. The “Little Brown Jug,” which has an honored spot on the C. H. S. set, was returned to its rightful place after the 13-6 victory on Nov. 16.

The next intermission came on Nov. 22 and 23 when the players were dismissed for the Thanksgiving holidays. Everyone was thankful, not only for the holiday from school, but also for the blessings of the year.

The set was covered with snow so the actors stayed at home on Dec 18. Santa was able to get out his sleigh to prepare for the Christmas holidays which began on Dec. 21.

The actors and actresses were filled with Yuletide spirit as they prepared for the Christmas Formal which was held on December 20. The bright decorations in the gym put everyone in a gay holiday mood.

This year the cast was given tests instead of exams and after these tests they were given Jan. 23-25 to recuperate.

Everyone on the PUFFS AND PATCHES Staff breathed a sigh of relief on Feb. 15 as the annual was sent to press.

This year the Monogram boys hung up decorations in Feb. instead of Nov. for the annual Monogram formal. The Queen was crowned and kissed and the whole company seemed to enjoy the gayety.

The basketball game was a sell-out and the cookie-sellers did a booming business when the Beta Club and the Tri-Hi-Y girls played the feminine half of the faculty on March 13.

The cast settled down to study for exams which took place June 2-5. It was hard to get into the mood when spring was in the air.

The time of year arrived when thoughts were turned to swimming and picnics! Many of the homerooms and clubs left the set for hours of pleasure and fun at Douthat or Dunlap.

Many activities were being carried on by the Stars (Seniors) of this year's play. The senior banquet certainly was delicious, but Class Day held the spot light. The whole student body enjoyed the humorous program presented by the seniors on Class Day. Not to be forgotten was that wonderful picnic at Douthat; the aroma of roasting hotdogs will always bring back fond memories.

The curtain rang down on the final act of the play. Many were sad to leave the set, but it was time for summer vacation and for looking forward to next year's production. The Stars (Seniors) received their diplomas amid hearty applause and marched out for the final time. They will go on to greater plays and their role as seniors will be given to the Under Studies (Juniors). It is with pride and a feeling of regret that we close the curtain on the 1952 production at C. H. S.

THE IMPRINT OF PRIDE

PRINTING is the great constructive force of the modern civilized world. It plays the indispensable part in the dissemination of news, in the expression and progression of political ideals, in the records and exchange of commerce and industry. It democratizes education, science, art, music—and broadens the scope of everything it touches. ¶To appreciate its high place in the esteem of an enlightened world, PRINTING MUST BE WELL DONE. Our offering to the cause of BETTER PRINTING is REPRESENTED IN THIS ANNUAL

Best of luck to a well girl.
 Though she is a little conceited.

"The play is done; the curtain drops,
 Slow falling to the prompter's bell:
 A moment yet the actor stops,
 And looks around, to say farewell.
 It is an irksome word and task:
 And, when he's laughed and said his say,
 He shows, as he removes his mask,
 A face that's anything but gay."

Thackeray—The End of the Play

Dear Kitten,

Well to begin with I think I have already told you how I feel about you but I'll put it in writing just for the record. Kitten, I have enjoyed every minute that I have spent with you and hope to spend an awful lot more time with you in the future. I'll never exactly know how I ever got that first date with you. I was just about the happiest boy in the world then and I am very very happy tonight even though I plan to leave tomorrow on a little trip. I think that because of you I probably won't stay as long on the trip as I would have if I had not met you. Doll, you have made life seem brighter and my future seem a little more worth looking forward to. Gess this sounds funny to anyone who reads this except you because they don't understand me like you do and don't expect them to know me like you do. It's been fun Kitten

Love Always,
Ron

Reserved for me you people!

Dear Eloise,

Well, kiddo, we sure have had fun this year and I really mean it. Remember the Junior - Senior Brass? Ha, how could you forget? All that trouble with me, while you and Pat just sat back waiting for the big hour, and I ended up at the Drill - end.

Oh, please don't ever forget the time we were riding with those 3 chuds! and the one I was with was cute but he smelled awful!

Remember all the fun we had up at my house and you were always arguing with dad. Remember when he unexpectedly came in and we were —

Remember when we used to go down town and you couldn't get along with —, Looking back it's all a lot of fun. Remember when we both were dating Danny, and oh you thought you loved him. Ha! what do you think now? Dear, dear Bonnie Squid!

Let's remember that old trial we're having - I'll be so glad when it's over!

Remember the night we found you know who! (G.) When you talked you —! More fun! Well gotta end now and make you write in Drizel! Gape to see you and have more fun next year! Love you —

Best of luck to a real sweet
 and cute girl.
